

YOU ARE OUR HERO

It seems that all eagles start out fledgling and frail.
But our growth was secure we got your e-mail.

You told of the plan to reach out to our school.
We somehow had been selected - as that was your rule.
And how we jumped and laughed with glee.
You were an answer to our prayers, you see!

In 1999, we acquired a new building so wonderful and big.
There was only one problem; we needed furniture and supplies for our new gig.
While we were wondering how we could look our fairest,
We looked out side and there was a truck from Harris.

It was Okie and the gang with a great big smile
They unloaded our furniture and supplies that would last a great while!
There was also paper, folder, pens and carts.
Why we thought it was Christmas, but it was only the month of March.

Every week it seems we got something new
Chairs, desks and files to help as our school grew!
One day as I sat praying for a way to greet our guest and all,
In came beautiful pictures for our corridor wall.

Needless to say my eyes began to tear.
I wondered how they could care with love so clear.
And God reminded me - they are your HEROES, my dear!

Down through the years it's been more of the same.
When ever we have a need - our HERO always came.
So today, I say "thank you" for being God's hands extended.
Each time our budget was broken - you came and you mended.
